

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"IN JEST" COMEDY-VARIETY SHOW AT CSB #3698 MOTHER/SON BANQUET

If laughter is good medicine, then CSB #3698 Mother/Son Banquet has a prescription for you. At the Wesleyan Church of Hamburg (the Quads) on Friday, January 26th, 2007 at 6pm, Nels Cremean will perform "In Jest," a knock-your-socks-off, laugh-until-it-hurts comedy-variety show for all ages.

Nels is an eccentric performer, variety artist, and professional fool. He performs for corporations, organizations, and celebrations throughout the United States and abroad, winning the hearts of audiences wherever he goes.

His shows blend classic comedy, flying objects, acts of balance, absurd theatrics, and assorted fruits and vegetables. Whether Nels is juggling unpredictable props, struggling with a mischievous microphone, involving the audience in outrageous antics, or performing an edge-of-your-seat balancing act, his inimitable character makes every show unforgettable.

In addition to entertainment, Nels works solo and with others to present keynotes & seminars, arts-in-education programs, and performing arts ministry (see www.injest.com).

This performance is made possible through the support of Christian Service Brigade #3698. Go to www.csb3698.org or call 716-649-4310 for more information.
